☞ The Newnan Herald is a noble example for its proclamation confreres. It continues the fight straight ahead, and don't seem to care a continental whether Bullock withdraws his smile or not.—Albany News.

☞ This morning's Intelligencer contains a brief announcement that Judge Whitaker retires from and Dr. Bard takes charge of that paper.

We wish the Doctor great success, and the out going proprietor, Judge Whitaker, prosperity in whatever new vocation he may seek.

☞ The Albany News says that the planters have put in very little more corn than they did last year. Each one acts on the idea that the others will plant a half crop of cotton, and that he will alone get the advantage. All do the same thing, and thus no one has corn, and all contribute to swell the cotton crop to small and unremunerative prices.

☞ Mr. Webster and Mr. Calhoun changed places on the tariff. The former being an advocate of free trade became its opponent, while the latter from being a protectionist became an ultra free trader. The consequence of this change was, in the first instance, nullification, and, in the second, secession.—Savannah News.

Aid for France.

We omitted, a day or two ago, to notice an appeal by Governor Bullock to the people of Georgia, based upon a communication from New York, asking aid for the suffering people of France. Contributions of seeds to plant, provisions, cotton, or money, are asked, and may be forwarded directly from Savannah to any ports of France, or through the Committee of the Chamber of Commerce in New York.

We endorse the appeal thoroughly.

Foreign Trade of the United States.

The monthly report (No. 6) of the Bureau of Statistics, just sent to press, gives the imports and exports for the calendar year 1870, as compared with 1869, showing that in the latter year the imports exceeded the exports by $64,622,422, while in the former year the excess was only $7,214,403, being an apparent improvement of $56,477,924. Deducting, however, the difference by the warehouse account, the real improvement of 1870 over 1869 is $21,741,732.

SPECIAL Correspondence of The Constitution.

WASHINGTON, March 5, 1871.

Within the past twenty-four hours the Forty-first Congress expired, and the Forty-second Congress was born. The old Congress died more virtuously than it had lived. The ballot lobby tore its hair in despair, as it after job received its quietus. There was much eating and drinking and merry-making in and around the Capitol during the all night session of the two Houses; but there were sober heads enough to guard the treasury from the invidious attacks of the various rings which exist on public plunder.

The general verdict on the 41st Congress is that it was a failure. Its sapiuence was its most conspicuous characteristic. It wasted many hours in saying much and doing little. But with it all it passed over the Chair a large number of bills of a useful nature, so that its death may well be considered a happy past for the country.

It rained, hailed and snowed here yesterday—snow predominating; but notwithstanding the unclemency of the weather people flocked to the Capitol by thousands. The diplomatic and ladies' galleries were filled with the fair sex, presenting a very brilliant appearance. Among the dignitaries on the floor of the House, was Horace Greeley, who looked as well known white over-coat, and occupied a conspicuous position on the left of the Speaker. Several of the British members of the Joint Commission were with the floor for a time, escorted by Gen. Schenck.

The new House was organized in the usual way; all the old officials being reflected, speaker Blaine, after having been installed, proceeded to swear in the members by squads, commencing with New England. The swearing in of the four colored Representatives created a decided sensation. As they stepped forward to take the oath, a murmur ran through the galleries, and members sprang to their feet to witness the novel spectacle. Four of the five are new members. Rainey, of South Carolina having been re-elected; Delarge, C. C. Bowen's successor, is a fine looking mulatto; while Elliott, from the same State, is nearly a full blooded African; Turney, of Alabama, is a portly colored man with a frame equal to John Morrissey's, and a stomach like Butler's; Walls, of Florida, is a medium-sized mulatto.

After the swearing in, seats were drawn for, and the House then adjourned till Tuesday next at 10½ a. m. The Senate was in session for an hour only, and has also adjourned over until Tuesday.

YOUNG FORNEY IN A HORNETS NEST.

On Tuesday last, the Chronicle of this city, edited by John W. Forney, Jr., ("a chip of the old block," in some respects, but with a very small modicum of brains,) contained a bodily attack on Miss Lydia Thompson, who was announced to appear here with her troupe on Monday. The following are the closing paragraphs of the Chronicle's editorial:

"Ladies who take their daughters, husbands their wives, brothers their sisters, and lovers their sweethearts to the National Theatre next week, give countenance to the most indecent and degraded performance ever witnessed in this city.

"No man of honor who respects woman can sit through any one of Lydia Thompson's plays with a lady by his wife.

"Miss Thompson's pieces are never witty. They are simple and always vulgar. On this alone do they depend.

"She is surrounded by men and women possessing as little modesty as herself.

"Washington has shown how it can support worthy entertainments; let it evidence next week that it will give no encouragement to immorality. Let the Lydia Thompson Blondes receive here the rebuke they deserve.

"Stay away from the theater during their engagement."

The blondes retaliated by serving up Forney, jr., in their nursery rhymes, and carried the audience with them. Thursday evening Forney sent word to Mr. Henderson that he would like to see him; that he regretted his attack on the troupe; that he had visited the theater on the previous evening, expecting to be disgusted, but had been very much pleased, etc. Mr. Henderson returned a word that he did not want to see Mr Forney, but if the latter would write an apologetic letter at once, his name would not be further used on the stage. This young Forney did not do, but buying a ticket, he stalked into the theater and seated himself in an orchestra chair. The burlesque was "Sinbad the Sailor," and when Miss Lydia, in the character of the Girl of the Period, made her stump speech, she gave the Chronicle man fits. The applause was thunderous. One or two of Forney's allies hissed, and angry looks were turned toward them, with cries of "put them out." The confusion was so great that I could only get hold of the tenor of Miss Lydia's remarks. She accounted for the hostility of young Forney, jr., "that moral young man," on the grounds that while the troupe was in Philadelphia, the manager, for good and sufficient reasons, had withdrawn his advertisements from Forney's Press; and, further, that Forney, jr., "that moral young man," had been kicked out of the National ... by Mr. Spalding for forcing his ... the scenes, while intoxicated, ... to gain access to ... dressing-rooms. This ... situation for "a moral ... deserving artiste, and had the sympathy of every lady in the audience on Thursday night.

The Lydia Thompson Troupe go South from here, and I bespeak for them a hearty welcome, which I am sure they will receive.

WILL BLODGETT GET IN?

The question of the greatest interest to Georgia at this time, is that concerning the admission of Foster Blodgett to the United States Senate. In addition to those already mentioned, the Blodgett lobby has been augmented by Mr. Tweedy. Blodgett has not ventured to show himself on the Senate floor, but frequents the House occasionally, and aired himself one day last week in Butler's seat.

On Friday, Mr. Hill presented to the Senate a protest from members of the Georgia Legislature against Blodgett's admission; and a pamphlet containing a full exposé of the career of the "little perjurer," was laid on the desks of Senators yesterday.

General Young is doing all in his power to prevent the admission of Blodgett, and it is believed that a majority of the Senate are prepared to oppose his claims. This is by no means certain, however. There is no accounting for what Radical Senators may do.

Blodgett has submitted his case to the Hon. Jeremiah J. Black, and is to have an opinion from that gentleman favorable to his claims. It will be a costly document, no doubt, but Blodgett's "private fortune" will enable him to put up the stamps.

Yesterday, when organizing the Senate of the Forty-second Congress, the Vice President stated that there was a certificate of election of Foster Blodgett, claiming a seat as Senator from Georgia.

Mr. Hill alluded to the protest of Republican members of the Legislature of Georgia, against the admission of Mr. Blodgett, which he had presented the other day. He merely discharged his duty to the people of Georgia in calling attention to this matter, and if the facts stated were correct, they were worthy of the most serious consideration by the Senate. He moved to lay the certificate and the protest on the table for future action.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Should the Senate agree to the House resolution, passed yesterday, providing for adjournment on Wednesday next, Blodgett's case must go over until December. Before that time the Legislature will have met and elected a Senator, in which case it is pretty certain Blodgett would find his case decidedly out of joint.

A short session, without a decision in this case, would also preclude the appointment by Bullock of a Senator to fill the vacancy which an adverse decision would make.

THE CARPET-BAGGERS' BATH.

The Congressional bath-rooms of the Capitol are palatial. They are spacious; have floors of tessalated tiles, wainscots of Tennessee marble, and walls and ceilings of pure white marble. On one side, you enter, is the toilet stand, marble basin, mirror, etc. On the other, a cushioned seat. The bath-tub, of white marble, extends the whole width of the chamber, and is of generous dimensions. You ascend to it by three marble steps. One room has hot and cold, warm and shower-baths ad libitum, with an abundance of towels and a man to rub you down if necessary. So perfect is the temperature of these rooms that contact of the body with the marble produces no chill; and the mere floor is not cold to one's feet. Such are the bath-rooms provided for our Congressmen. It is a pity they are not oftener used by some of the "unwashed" M. Cs.

A day or two since a carpet-bagger was invegled into one of these baths. The result was most disastrous. He emerged a changed man. His best friends did not know him. He did not know himself. His complexion is many shades whiter. His clothes hung loosely about him. In great alarm he took to his hotel, for ought I know is there yet. This little story is intended solely for carpet-baggers; and the moral is, Don't take a bath—that is, if you only intend to take one during a life time?

BOHEMIANS AND BARDS.

The newspaper men of Washington deserve well of their country. Within the past week or two the World correspondent, a Herald correspondent, a Tribune correspondent and a Times correspondent have added to the census. The "little strangers" and the happy mothers are doing well; but the voices of the pups have driven slightly husky from singing nocturnal lullabys. The new comers are not all of the sex born with the ballot in hand; but if Woodhull, Claflin & Co. prevail, they may all be voters on attaining the lawful age. Should not the salaries of these and other presiding correspondents, be increased? I submit the question to liberal-minded publishers. As an "old hatchetor," I am, of course, entirely disinterested in the matter.

THE CINCINNATI SOUTHERN RAILROAD.

The Trustees and Delegates from the Board of Trade of Cincinnati, who have been in Washington for some time, looking after the interest of the Cincinnati Southern Railroad, left for home last night. They feel confident that a bill granting a charter to that road will pass early in the Forty-second Congress, and as the necessary surveys have already been made, they hope to commence grading and laying the rail by the first of April.

It will be recollected that the Cincinnati Southern Railroad bill passed the last House of Congress, was referred to the Senate a day prior to adjournment.

THE GEORGIA DELEGATION.

All of the Representatives from Georgia answered when their names were called yesterday: McIntyre, Whitely, Bigby, Speer, DuBose, Price and Young.

SUGAR PLUMS FOR PATRIOTS.

The House sub-Committee on Elections did not reach a decision in the case of Tift vs. Whitely, but Mr. Tift was voted $500.

The House voted itself $1,000 for expenses incurred in contesting the seat of Hon. S. A. Croker. Bryant, Beard's attorney, will probably get the lions share.

General Young gets the full salary for the 41st Congress, and the other members from Georgia draw one year's pay and travel.

THE NEW LOAN.

It will be noticed that Mr. Boutwell's list of agents for disposing of the bonds authorized by the Funding bill, does not contain a single banker or banking firm in the southern States. Mr. B. evidently intends to let the South alone; and South will no doubt let his loan alone. C. A. P.

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA—Morning Session—March 8, 1871—Argument No. 3, Docket No. 4, was concluded.

No. 4 was argued. It is John A. Bruce vs. James H. Turner, Executor. Complaint from Newton.

John J. Floyd and A. B. Sims for plaintiff in error.

Clark & Pace for defendant.

No. 5 was passed over till to-morrow.

No. 6 was taken up. It is Harry Camp vs. James M. Pace, administrator. Injunction, from Newton.

A. B. Sims, A. M. Speer, for plaintiff in error.

Clark & Pace, for defendant.

Pending the opening argument, Court adjourned till 3 o'clock, P. M.

MR. SAULSBURY FORGETS.—Mr. Willard Saulsbury, whose Senatorial term had expired, but who had not yet retired from his seat, here addressed the Chair, and objected to the reception of the paper.

Several Senators, (aside) the gentleman is no longer a member.

Mr. Saulsbury, (bowing and resuming his seat) oh, I beg pardon; I forgot. [Great laughter.]

☞ New York is not much behind San Francisco in its subscriptions to relieve the suffering in France. They already foot up $196,000, of which the chamber of commerce committee collected $25,500, the produce exchange committee, $15,000, and the citizens' committee, $85,000.

☞ There is nothing new about Greeley to-day. He is closeted practicing on a new oath, of which a recently arrived pirate is trying to sell him the right-of-way. It is said he made the pirate sick at rehearsal by introducing a few of his old oaths by way of variety.—N. Y. Democrat.

☞ Such an advertisement as this is very common in the columns of the London Times: "Wanted—A wet nurse, a single woman preferred." But now comes a moral Boston journal with the same advertisement. To what are we coming?

☞ Governor Clayton has issued a proclamation, announcing that John Edwards, Democrat, was elected to Congress in the Third District of Arkansas. He received 8,009 votes, and his opponent, Thomas Boles, 7,959. There were four scattering votes.

I would not hesitate to use my influence in favor of the article, for medical purposes, the "delicious Schnapps" as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours, CHAS. A. ETIWAN GUANOS, SOLUBLE MANURES.

—AND—

SULPHURIC ACID,

MANUFACTURED AT THE

ETIWAN WORKS,

CHARLESTON, S. C.,

BY THE

Sulphuric Acid and Superphosphate Co.

THE now well-known ETIWAN GUANO is manufactured from the Native Bone Phosphates of South Carolina. These Phosphates, in their natural state, are insoluble, and require to be ground to powder, and made Soluble by Sulphuric Acid. This Company have now in operation the largest Sulphuric Acid Chambers at the South, and are, therefore, able to manufacture at the lowest rates, the highest grade of Fertilizer; it being clear that the greater the proportion of Soluble Phosphate which any Fertilizer contains, the more the quantity required per acre. In order to make the Fertilizer complete, Ammonia and Potash in their sufficient quantities are added. With these views the Company manufacture and offer for sale

ETIWAN GUANOS,

Warranted to contain from 15 to 20 PER CENT. OF DISSOLVED BONE PHOSPHATE OF LIME, and from 9 to 2½ per cent. of AMMONIA, with a sufficient admixture of PERUVIAN GUANO and POTASH, to adapt it to all crops. Price $55 per ton, cash; on time, $60 per ton, and interest 7 per cent. per annum.

DISSOLVED BONE,

Of high grade, suitable for Manufacturers or for Planters, being in itself an excellent Fertilizer, and especially adapted for compost. As large quantities of Sulphuric Acid are used in dissolve the Phosphate, this will be found a cheap and convenient way to transport that material. The grade furnished will be from 10 to 12 per cent. Dissolved Bone Phosphate. Price $40 per ton, cash. On time, $45, with interest at 7 per cent. per annum. Still higher grades will be furnished to order at additional price per centage.

Compound Acid Phosphate,

Specially prepared for compositing with cotton seed and other plantation manures. Price $28 per ton cash; on time $40, with interest at 7 per cent. per annum.

GROUND BONE,

At much lower rates, consisting simply of the Native Bone Phosphates ground to powder. Price $20 per ton, cash. On time, $22 and interest at 7 per cent. per annum.

WM. C. BEE & CO.,

N. B.—The percentage of Dissolved Bone Phosphate of Lime, and Ammonia in all the Etiwans, is ascertained at the Works, by their Chemist, before delivery. Should any purchaser be dissatisfied, he may receive average samples of any purchase, within thirty (30) days after delivery, and they will be analyzed anew and any deficiency in the percentage guaranteed will be made good to him by the Company.

SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO COMPANY.

CAPITAL $1,000,000.

WE would beg to call the attention of planters to the Soluble Pacific Guano, which we have been selling in this market for the past five years, and that by its excellence it has acquired a reputation unsurpassed by any Fertilizer sold in this or any other markets. The reputation and high standing of the PACIFIC GUANO COMPANY is sufficient guarantee that the high character of this Fertilizer will be maintained. We have for distribution, a large number of testimonials from planters, showing a profit, of from 100 to 300 per cent. on the investment the past season. With such an increase, we cannot see how any planter can be absent, on the investment the present season. With such an increase, we cannot see how any planter can be absent, or refuse to using it, even at the low price of cotton.

DEFIES REFUTATION.
BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO.

J. W. AVERY, Editor.

Morning Edition.

ATLANTA:
THURSDAY, MARCH 9, 1871.

☞ More troops are being ordered South.

☞ Napoleon is expected at Chiselhurst, England, where Eugenie is still living.

☞ North Carolina supported 3,020 paupears in 1870, at a cost of $131,000.

☞ The public debt of France will about run up to four and a half billions. The largest debt in the world.

☞ Many of the people in Alsace and Lorraine, the provinces ceded by France to Prussia, are preparing to emigrate.

☞ Chancellor Ed. Yerger, of Tennessee, one of the brightest men in the State, is dead.

☞ In another column will be found an article from the Greensboro Herald, headed "Georgia in 1872," which we take great pleasure in indorsing.

PERSONAL.—We had a pleasant call yesterday from Mr. Johnston, one of the editors and proprietors of that most excellent and prosperous weekly, the Sparta Times and Planter.

We commend Mr. Johnston heartily to our business men.

☞ The Radicals in the House, on the last day, in the 41st Congress, made a desperate attempte to change the rules of the House with the view to enslaving the Democratic minority in the 42d Congress, but it was as desperately resisted.

Mr. Brooks, of New York, denounced the attempt in fiery terms, declaring that it was a shame to change the rules of the House at the last hour of the session; that it was not legislation, but revolution. And he gave notice that if such a course was pursued it would be resisted by every expedient to the borders of revolution.

The infamy failed.

Business Connection Between Atlanta and New Orleans.

We have referred before to the subject of a business intercourse between Atlanta and New Orleans, and have quoted an extract from our worthy contemporary, the New Orleans Bee, on the same important subject. This connection will be mutually profitable to both sections.

Sugar and molasses are staples, and anything that will enable our merchants to sell them cheaper to their customers, will be a positive benefit to our people. This is just what will be accomplished by opening up trade with the cheapest and nearest markets. The advantage to New Orleans will be, of course, in adding to the number of her customers.

Let us compare the figures. Passengers travel direct from Atlanta to New York, in three days; from Atlanta to New Orleans, one day and a quarter. Freight comes from New York to Atlanta, in from five to six days; from New Orleans to Atlanta, in from three to four days. Freight on sugar from New York to Atlanta, in one dollar on the hundred pounds; from New Orleans to Atlanta, just one-half as much. Fair sugars in New Orleans are quoted at 7¾@8, while in New York they are quoted from 9¼@10.

These figures will show how much cheaper market New Orleans is than New York for the ordinary sugars.

The matter is one of considerable importance, and we call the attention of our grocery merchants to the facts, that our people may get the benefit of the better market.

Gov. Bullock Cannot Appoint a Senator if Foster Blodgett Fails to Get In.

The question of Governor Bullock's authority to appoint a Senator to represent Georgia in the Forty-second Congress until our Legislature meets in November, if Foster Blodgett is not admitted, has been considerably mooted. The general impression is that he can appoint. But we find that the impression is wrong. The United States Senate has decided the matter many times. There is an unbroken line of precedents, that establish the rule that where a State has not elected a Senator for a term, there is no vacancy, and the Governor cannot fill it by appointment.

In 1825, the point was decided in the case of a Connecticut Senator, and since then repeated instances have occurred where the rule was carried into execution.

If the Senate declare against Blodgett, it is not a vacancy, but simply a term never filled, and therefore, only to be filled by the State. The law is imperative. The State must elect the Senator, and the Governor is not the State.

Story discusses the principle very fully in his commentaries on the Constitution.

But all discussion is useless in the light of the established rule in such cases—a rule never yet deviated from.

If Blodgett is not admitted, Georgia must be unrepresented in the Senate until the Legislature meets, and elects a Senator.

The Women Suffragers on Radicalism.

The woman suffragers in Washington, got up a meeting in honor of Congressman Julian and other Representatives who have helped their efforts for the ballot. They made a very neat speech through their Chairman, or rather Chairwoman.

We clip the following extract from their address, as being worthy of perusal. The last paragraph especially, conveys a slam on that party, which for the last few years has run the Government by the bayonet instead of by the consent of the governed.

It will be observed also, that the women make a very subtle and seducing bid for aid to woman suffrage, in the nicely-insinuated offer of support of the women voters to those who may assist the crusade who desire office.

Altogether the extract is highly readable:

> Permit us to express the hope that in coming years you may be returned to this Capitol by the votes of grateful women citizens, enfranchised through your instrumentality; and should you be called to take upper seats here in remembrance of faithful services during this session we shall congratulate not only ourselves but our common and well-beloved country; and if, gentlemen, you should find here as colleagues some of the matrons of the Republic whose names are now being daily signed to this new declaration of fealty of human rights, we have confident assurance that you will cheerfully work, hand in hand, with them according to the tenor of their pledge to work with you "for the maintenance of those equal rights on which our Republic was originally founded, to the end that it may have what is declared to be the first condition of just government—the consent of the governed.

The Value of Parties.

Speaker Blaine in returning thanks for his election as Speaker of the Forty-second Congress, made some neat remarks. The following will bear reproduction, as containing censure of the Radical party, none the less severe because unintended, for its notorious disregard of the rights of minorities during the season of its majority:

> "Chosen by the party representing the political majority in this House, the Speaker owes a faithful allegiance to the principles and the policy of that party. But he will fail far below the honorable requirements of his station if he fails to give to the minority its fullest rights under the rules which he is called upon to administer. The successful party of our great system of government legislation which this House produces and perfects is that which results from opposing forces, mutually eager and watchful, and well-nigh balanced in numbers."

The Next President—Will the Democracy Elect Him?

Editor Constitution: We think we can demonstrate that the cheering certainty is before us, that the Democracy will elect the next President. Taking the present representation in Congress as the basis of our calculation, as to the electoral vote, we find that the whole electoral vote is 314. Necessary to a choice 158.

Now we think the worst Radical will not dispute that the following States are nearly certain to vote for the Democratic candidate for President:

Alabama	Electoral vote	8
California	"	5
Connecticut	"	6
Delaware	"	3
Georgia	"	9
Indiana	"	13
Kentucky	"	11
Maryland	"	7
Missouri	"	11
New Jersey	"	7
New York	"	33
North Carolina	"	9
Oregon	"	3
Tennessee	"	10
Texas	"	4
Virginia	"	10
West Virginia	"	5
Total		156

This lacks but two votes of electing by giving the Democratic candidate the States which the Radicals themselves would concede to him. But as Democrats, we claim that it is morally certain that Florida and Arkansas will vote for our candidate. This would give him eight more votes, and the vote of either will elect him. Besides we think there is a strong probability that we will carry Pennsylvania, Louisiana and Mississippi.

For, notwithstanding all the gerrymandering of the Radicals in Pennsylvania, out of four-twenty-four Congressmen the Democrats elected ten in the Forty-second Congress, and Louisiana voted for Seymour.

In a word, the whole Southern States, we hope, will get rid of the carpet-baggers in time for the next Presidential election, and this vote, in solid phalanx, added to the Northern States, recognized as Democratic, will sweep away the "gift enterprise" concern in Washington out of their boots.

We advise Mr. Grant and the Dent family to invest largely in hides, as Mr. Grant, the tanner, may take up with his old love. X.

How Milledgeville was Captured.

The virtuous Kilpatrick, in a recent lecture at Chicago, on Sherman's march to the sea, made the following statement, which we give for what it is worth:

> Milledgeville was not captured by the army, but by the lunatics, who took possession of its five hours in advance of the legislature. The rebel mayor, accompanied by lawyers, doctors, dentists, and the good men and the bad men of the city, came out with a flag of truce to receive the lunatics.
> One man read a discourse he had prepared for the occasion, setting forth what history might say of the surrender of Milledgeville and the conduct of the Yankee troops. The chief hammer promised all sorts of protection to private property. One Northern man, who had lived there a long time, said he had always been a great Union man and loved the old flag, etc. The lunatics looked at him for a moment and then said: "Dry up, you sips. It don't make no difference to me what you are, leave your gold a watch." The gentleman was obliged to throw up his watch, kill his chickens, and prepare a "good old dinner" for the hammer, while the latter ransacked the house.

The New Congress.

A VARIETY OF INTERESTING FACTS.

The New York Evening Post (Free Trade Republican) makes a survey of the Forty-second Congress, which organized the House on Monday. Speaking of the political complexion of the House, it says: "The members who took their seats on Saturday are 130 Republicans, 96 Democrats and one Independent free trader—Mr. James G. Blair, of the Eighth district of Missouri. Of these 227 members as we showed in November, 120 are confidently counted as revenue reformers, while not more than 75 can be called 'protectionists.' The new House of Representatives, therefore, is not only pledged to a better policy on the subject of land grants and subsidies legislation. On the 4th of March the terms of two-thirds Senators expire. Twenty-five of these have already been filled by election, since that one, that of Mr. Revels' successor in Mississippi, has been contested again by the organization of Governor Alcorn. Making it probable that Mr. Revels will be. One for the next Presidential election, and this vote, in solid phalanx, added to the Northern States, recognized as Democratic, will sweep away the "gift enterprise" concern in Washington out of their boots.

Of the two-thirds Senators who enter upon new terms, eight have been or will probably be reelected, and sixteen are new members. The new members are Powell Clayton, of Arkansas; John A. Logan, of Illinois; Geo. G. Wright, of Iowa; Alexander Caldwell, of Kansas; J. D. Williams, of Indiana; Thomas W. Ferry, of Michigan; William Windom, of Minnesota; Pomeroy, W. Hitchcock, of Nebraska, and T. F. Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey. Republicans, and George Goldthwaite, of Alabama; Eli Saulsbury, of Delaware; D. W. Stevenson, of Kentucky; J. P. Stockbridge, of Michigan; Zebulon B. Vance, of North Carolina; Joseph P. Kelly, of Oregon; Henry Cooper, of Tennessee; and Henry G. Davis, of West Virginia—Democrats.

In point of ability, we believe, there is a marked improvement in most of these changes.

There are several noticeable features in these Senatorial changes. In the first place, the most prominent advocates of the San Domingo scheme have been rejected by their constituents (Chas. Howard, of Michigan, and Thayer, of Nebraska, were members of the committee appointed to investigate the transactions of General Babcock, in San Domingo, and were very active in his favor. They have supported the San Domingo job at every stage of its history. Warner, of Alabama; McDonald, of Arkansas; Howe, of Iowa; Cattell, of New Jersey; Abbott, of North Carolina, Drake, of Missouri; Yates, of Illinois, and Williams, of Oregon, have also supported every recommendation of the President in regard to San Domingo. They are all succeeded, we believe, by men who will better represent the wishes of the people on this subject.

This probably decides the fate of the annexation scheme. The last vote in the Senate on the ratification of Babcock's San Domingo treaty was a tie—28 to 28—sixteen members being absent. It is not only certain that no treaty of that sort can now receive the constitutional majority in the Senate, but very probable that even the bare majority necessary for annexation by joint resolution cannot be had. The country does not want San Domingo.

In the next place, several well-known protectionists have been exchanged for men of very different views, and there is some hope that the Senate will second the House in reforming the revenue. All of the new Democratic Senators are believed to be decided revenue reformers. Messrs. Logan, Clayton, Hitchcock, Caldwell and West, among the Republicans, are also revenue reformers, Mr. Ferry, of Michigan, is said to have become disgusted with the rapacity of his protectionists friends; he will not oppose moderate reforms. Windom has been claimed by the protectionists as one of them, but immediately after his election, he made a speech wherein he distinctly asserted, for the avowed purpose of correcting any misapprehension, that he favored the reduction of the tariff to a strictly revenue standard.

Blaine's Dark Ways.

There is considerable dissatisfaction manifested in various ways at the evident trafficking by the Speaker in the chairmanships of leading committees. Three months ago Blaine is reported to have voluntarily promised the Ways and Means to Garfield. Now the demands of the ultra protectionists are so pressing, under the lead of Mr. Greeley, who is here for that purpose, that they will probably induce the Speaker to break his pledge. Dawes is the choice of Greeley and Kelly would suit him better, but it would be impossible to face the storm that this action would arouse. Garfield is to be placed at the head of the Appropriation Committee, and Butler goes on the Military Committee. It is thought that the Reconstruction Committee will not be reviewed.

Ketchum, a New York land-grabber, is to be chairman in Julian's place on Public Lands. Coburn, of Indiana, expected the Banking and Currency chairmanship, but will probably be beaten by Hooper, of Massachusetts. Kelly is likely to be placed second on the Ways and Means.

Wheeler will remain on the Pacific Railroad. Washburn, of Massachusetts, on Claims. Lynch, of Maine, on Commerce. Stephenson, of Ohio, a thorough partisan, is to have the Election Committee, the members of which will be announced tomorrow. Bingham will remain at the head of the Judiciary. The announcement of these, however, are dependent upon whether

THE NEW EMPIRE.

Germany's Strength and Her Future.

From the New York Times.

The new Empire of Germany begins from this time a career of immense importance to the world. Its population is the second of the great States of Europe. Russia leads it with 69,000,000; but, including Alsace and Lorraine, Germany follows with 40,120,000 of the most industrious and intelligent inhabitants to be found in any community of the world. France, shorn of a large part of her two provinces, comes next with 36,430,000; then the Austrian monarchy with 35,043,000, and Great Britain with 30,838,000; last of all being Italy, with Rome, counting 25,470,000 inhabitants. Even the preponderating population of the German Empire is no fair measure of its strength.

Its position is central, whether for military or moral influence. It is compact and homogeneous. All its vast forces are under the control of one Executive and the Parliament. Its leading State, Prussia, is confessedly the most intelligent, disciplined and vigorous community in Europe. The administration is everywhere economical and thoroughly well organized. The educational system of Prussia, its economy and thorough discipline, will now be spread through all the Empire. Even this tremendous war will leave less debt on the Empire than it would on any other civilized State. The Hohenzollerns always made their enemies pay their war expenses, and no army lives at so little money cost as the German.

In our judgment the "Empire will be peace," in a far better sense than was ever true of the Napoleonic regime.

The war has made terrible wounds in German homes. Almost every family has suffered. The very best of the people, as in our own war, have offered their lives for the country. All business and production have been interrupted. For a generation to come, the masses will dread and abhor war, and the people will seek their natural bent in trade, agriculture and manufacture. The masses, too, are to have more power in the new Empire. The Parliament is to contain 382 members in the Lower House, chosen by universal suffrage. Many of the trades-unions and working men's associations are represented among them. It is now that Prussia sends 236 members out of this number, but many others in the cities and Western provinces come from Democratic constituencies.

The portion of the German Parliament will be quite a popular body, and represent the national aspirations for peace and industrial progress. In the Upper House, which corresponds to our Senate, and represents States and princely families, Prussia has a much smaller proportional representation—only seventeen out of fifty-two, while Bavaria has six, Saxony four, and Wurtemburg four, and Baden and Hesse three each. This gives five States could in that House out vote Prussia, if they so desired; yet Prussia represents 24,629,000 inhabitants, while Bavaria contains but 4,824,421, Saxony 2,423,600 and Wurtemburg 1,778,000. One principality represented by one vote in each House—Schaumburg Lippe—has but the population of a small town, 29,000.

The interest of the future, both for Germany and the world, in the new Parliament, is in the struggle, inevitable and intense, between the self-will and royal power of the Hohenzollern and the popular aspirations for greater liberty. The present Kaiser is a martinet and believes in the "divine right," and therefore, will be determined to have his own way without regard to constitution. Unfortunately for liberty, he has shown a disposition to command by great efforts and great achievements. Like all his ancestors, he has known how to conduct a large government with rigid economy, and has had the faculty of choosing and retaining able men in the service. he has cast life and crown into the struggle for Prussia's supremacy, and has come forth victorious. Germany will forgive many sins to the brave old martinet and self-willed but successful Emperor.

For years to come the principal events in German history will be the struggles between the Emperor and the people. With the succession of his son, however, will come a more reasonable and liberal Government. "Our Fritz" is known to all Germany as a liberal-minded ruler, and no mean General. He has been worthily consecrated for the Imperial Crown on many a battle-field. His English wife gives a promise of free constitutional influences at home; and of a future reign which shall be worthy of a constitutional King. We cannot but hope that the new German Empire for tokens greater peace and liberty to continental Europe.

MABEL GRAY.

The Career and Death of the Queen of the Demi-Monde of London.

The death of Mabel Gray, the famous queen of the demi-monde of London, has already been announced, but some facts connected with her extraordinary career may not be uninteresting.

She was once a poor sewing girl. The most notorious and conspicuous of those who supported her in her luxurious and splendor according to all accounts—for is she not the Cleopatra of England—has been the Prince of Wales. At one time she was engaged to be married to the heir to one of the oldest English dukedoms, but by strenuous interference of his friends, and the firing of the heart of her affianced by a liberal provision, what would have been a gross misalliance was fortunately prevented. Many stories are told of her dashing extravagance.

Her name and conduct were the theme of gossip in the clubs. She was the original of Offenbacheault's "Formosa." She it was who gave its name to the "Mabel Waltz," composed by Godfrey, the leader of the band in the guards. She caused the ruin of Captain Milfeanke, of the guards. Her portrait was haunted in every shop-window in London, and those of Nilsson, Patti, the Queen and the Princess appeared, she was seen, like "Anonyma," in other famous queen of the demi-monde, at the opera, the Kaiserwick flower show, at Kinsington gardens, driving a bloodied horse on the fashionable park drive called "Rotten Row"—always with a splendid equipage and indoubtable pluck. And altogether, the fate of Brigham Young indicates a man of iron inflexibility, much forecast, extraordinary ability and a vast fund of good humor. He is not a sensual-looking man, like President Grant, nor a wicked-looking one, like Ben Butler, and is, in my judgment, a man of better moral than either of them.

Cuba.

Havana, March 4.—Major Argan Aide to Count Valmaseda, returned yesterday having partici[pated] under the Captain General's orders.

BY TELEGRAPH.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—Chase is here, his health is much improved.

Fortiss, of New York; Aldize, of Vermont; and Howell, of Iowa, have been appointed as commissioners to examine Southern claims.

The Department receives now the full list of reports from its stations reached by the Franklin and Western Union lines.

Synopsis of the Weather Reports for the past Twenty-four hours.—The pressure has diminished with threatening weather on the Middle Atlantic, and less so with clear weather on the South Atlantic. It has risen with threatening weather on the East Atlantic. The central area or the lowest barometer, which was yesterday evening in Nebraska, has moved very slowly to the southeast, and now covers Iowa, Missouri and Illinois; its influence has extended very rapidly to the Gulf, and less so towards Lake Ontario. Heavy rains are reported from the Mississippi Valley, with high and brisk southerly winds from the Gulf to Lakes Michigan and Huron. High northerly winds in Nebraska. Fresh winds prevail on the Atlantic coast.

Probabilities.—A severe storm is indicated for to-night and to-morrow for the Gulf. High winds for three days on the Lakes. Threatening weather on the South Atlantic, with fresh winds.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, March 8.—The South Carolina Legislature adjourned sine die at twelve o'clock last night.

There is general satisfaction among the people at the fact that the new railroad schemes, involving an addition of four millions of money to the State debt, have been defeated after a hard struggle. There has been no addition of any kind to the State debt during the session. This result is mainly due to the firm and persistent opposition of Governor Scott to all measures of public extravagance. It is estimated that the taxes for the current year will be ample to meet all the financial needs of the State government, and the taxes for next year have been somewhat reduced. The ordinary appropriations have been largely cut down in the last hours of the session. The Governor vetoed a bill nulling an appropriation for Legislative expenses, on the ground that it contained a fraudulent item of nearly one hundred thousand dollars. The veto was sustained.

> "Sir, I am deeply interested in the present war, which arose from an injury involuntarily done the French Emperor. I believe in God, who has always protected France, and France will triumph."

Bismarck answers:

> "Sir, the King has not received the letter which you have addressed to him, but I believe I can satisfy you with an answer. As here the during the remainder of your life to kneel down before him and ask forgiveness for the miseries you have brought upon your country."

MESSRS. BELL & HAMMOCK sold on yesterday, 12 lots at satisfactory prices. They were located in the south-western portion of the city.

THE Georgia Mutual Life Insurance Company have a beautiful new sign over their new office in the Kimball House.

THERE were six cases disposed of by Mayor Hammond yesterday. Fines imposed amounted to $61 00.

GEORGE H. EDDLEMAN is receiving a large assortment of shoes for gents', ladies' and children's wear, of elegant patterns and superior quality. He has an elegant line of baby shoes.

WE return our thanks to Messrs. Cooper & Lane, and Stephens, Flynn and Co., for specimen sacks of the genuine Norway oats. They have them for sale.

RELIGIOUS.—Services will be held to-night at the First Baptist Church; prayer meeting at 7½ o'clock; preaching at 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

WE learn that negro boys congregate at the bridge over the Georgia Railroad, and pelt the freight and passenger cars with rocks. The police should get after them.

REAL ESTATE SALES TO-DAY.—Col. Adair sells the remainder lots of the Ponder property to-day. Messrs. Bell & Hammock sell four business lots at Seago's corner this morning at ten o'clock. Look out for bargains.

IN the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia, Hon. Judge Erskine presiding, there were three discharges in bankruptcy yesterday. John F. Crawford, Richard Barrett and Asbury L. Snow.

WILEY RANDOLF and William Lambert, both colored, and both mixed in their specialities, were up before Justice Johnson yesterday for the offence of burglary in the night time; found guilty and bound over.

THE firm of Maddox & Winter has been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. J. L. Winter will continue the business at the old stand. Colonel H. F. Maddox is an old and successful merchant, and, we trust, will not be long out of business.

JOHN LAUNIUS was up before Judge Johnson, on yesterday, charged with the offense of robbing on the State Road. He was bound over in the sum of $500, for his appearance before Judge Johnson's criminal court, Dekalb.

WE learn with pleasure that the venerable Dr. Lovick Pierce will visit the city this week as the guest of Rev. Arminius Wright, and will occupy the pulpit of Wesley Chapel on next Sabbath, at 10½ o'clock a. m., and 7½ p. m.

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA.—Standing Action.—Argument of No 8, Flint Circuit, was resumed.
Pending the concluding argument in error Court adjourned till 10 o'clock a. m. to-morrow.

FOUR first-class business lots at auction this morning at 10 o'clock, on Mitchell street, adjoining Seago's store, by Bell & Hammock. Terms easy. Property very desirable. Business men and capitalists should be on hand.

"IF a cat doth meet a cat, upon a garden wall; and, if a cat doth greet a cat, oh! good they both in equall!" In one or two localities in the city, there has been considerable complaint of the abuse mentioned in the above. Where are Peoples'es? Can't we have a cat Pound?

MESSRS. J. B. LIPPINCOTT & Co., have added a new attraction to Lippincott's Magazine, in the shape of a supplement devoted to popular and entertaining social stories. The March number contains the opening chapters of "Rockstone," a charming story by Katherine S. Macquoid.

CORRECTION.—In the article "Covington Belles," yesterday morning, in place of the word "sublime," the word "Sabina" should have been printed as it was in copy—Sabine being the place, famous in classic history, whence the Roman youths by a grand coup d'etat obtained their wives.

We have read of rich slippers that cure the gout; of diamond rings that cure the looseness of the flesh about the roots of the nails; of imperial diadems that would cure the headache, yet until yesterday we never examined one of the "charms" worn by ignorant and superstitious females to prevent others of their sex from "stinching" them.

THE Cartersville Express states that on last Sunday, while E. G. Nelson was crossing the bridge over Etowah Creek, at Tunnel's Mills, with one two little boys, in a two-horse buggy, the bridge gave way and precipitated him into the creek. One of the horses was killed, and Mr. Nelson injured so that he died soon after. The little boys escaped. A negro man in trying to get the buggy out of the creek, was drowned.

NEVER has there been in Georgia such a demand for clover and grass seed as at present. Messrs. S. A. Echols, Mark W. Johnson and E. Van Goltzenoven inform us that it is difficult for them to keep even with their orders. The cultivation of the grasses has been stimulated by the fine crops of Hon. Col. Hallie J. E. Brown. In this much at least, he has been a great public benefactor.

A FAIR AUDIENCE greeted the Katie Putnam troupe last night. Miss Katie, Edwin Brown, Tinie Dot, and Master Eddy, sustained their high reputation in the performance of their several roles. Master Eddy's dancing was very deservedly applauded. Little Dot, as the Duchess, made a telling hit. By the way, Miss Katie and Edwin Brown ought to have complimentary benefits before leaving.

THIRTY FIFTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT COURT.—Court met yesterday, Judge Lawrence presiding. Mary Hunnicut col'd was convicted of larceny from the house, and sentenced to work twenty days on the public streets.
George Washington (colored) charged with larceny from the person. Acquitted.
Haywood James (colored) charged with larceny from house. The case was nol. pros.

THE Farmer and Gardener is the title of a semi-monthly journal, devoted to Southern agriculture, horticulture and rural life, published at Augusta, by R. H. Gray, for one dollar per annum.
P. J. Berckmans is the horticultural editor. The number before us contains a choice variety of interesting matter, and we wish the Farmer and Gardener abundant success. Mr. Berckmans is well qualified for his position by enlarged experience and high mental culture. Mr. E. Van Goltzenoven is the agent in Atlanta.

WE are glad to learn that efforts will be vigorously made during the week to secure an additional steamer to the Fire Department for Tallulah. At the meeting Tuesday night, a committee was appointed to wait upon the Council, and ask an appropriation sufficient to make the first payment. Our Department is exceedingly small, and water facilities very limited, and several times have we felt the necessity of another steamer. We feel confident that the Council will come to the rescue of the boys, as they have long deserved one, and in addition to the Fire Queen, we can "Go to our little beds" secure in the thought that all will be well.

WHAT FIVE DOLLARS WILL DO!—J. C. Derby has adopted the gift plan for the disposal of his lot at Aiken, S. C., and for five dollars gives a ticket that amount, and a ticket in the drawing, grand dollars in prizes, the grand prize distributed among nineteen thousand times off at Au- pictures given

THE holder fail to draw a prize. We believe that the drawing will be fair and honest, and some man will be lucky enough to win a fortune. Call on Messrs. Phillips & Crew, Agents, and secure a ticket at once.

NEW AND VALUABLE SEEDS GIVEN AWAY.—We have received from N. P. Boyer & Co., of Parkesburg, Chester county, Penn., samples of Imported Norway Oats, Alsike Clover and Chester County Mammoth Corn; they generously offer to send sample packages free to all farmers who send stamps to pay postage. Messrs. N. P. Boyer & Co., are the largest importers of thorough-bred stock and choice seeds in the United States, and as there is so much bogus Norway Oats and other seeds being sold, they wish to give every farmer in the country a chance to test their genuine seeds, free of charge. We hope all our farmer friends will avail themselves of this generous offer.

OXFORD.—We are pleased to learn of the prosperous condition of Oxford. Real Estate is advancing in price and in demand. The health and morals of the town continue unexcelled. Emory College is in a thriving condition. Over thirty accessions were made this term, and the pupils learn rapidly. The Palmer Institute has met with enlarged success this year, a just compliment to the worth of its accomplished principal, Miss Lundy. May Oxford continue to thrive and prosper, and shed the blessings of its bright example all over the State.

GOOD BOOKS.—Among the periodical publications of the day, we know of none better suited for the family circle than Good Words, Good Words for the Young and The Sunday Magazine, published by Messrs. J. B. Lippincott & Co., of Philadelphia. Good Words is edited by Norman Macleod, D. D.; Good Words for the Young, by George MacDonald; and The Sunday Magazine by Dr. Guthrie. The numbers before us are solid and substantial, and the illustrations fine. The terms of the first are $3 75; of the second, $2 50, and the last $3 00 per annum.

THE Grand Commandery of the Knights Templar will meet in Annual Conclave, in Atlanta, on the 25th of May next. Eight or ten States will be represented. Connecticut, Iowa, Ohio and New York, have already signified their intention to be represented on that occasion. Our citizens should extend to them a cordial greeting and the most enlarged hospitality. Their meeting here should be signalized as a gala day, and a night of festival. Take the delegates by the hand, and grasp it with the warm cordiality of sincere friendship.
Dr. Amos Fox is the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means. Don't wait for him to call upon you, but call upon him and subscribe liberally to the fund for entertaining our distinguished visitors.
We are confident that our citizens will respond with their accustomed liberality.

A COUPLE of ill-favored white men, both a good deal under the influence of benzine, had a fight out in Hortonville yesterday afternoon. One had his face a good deal bruised. Cause of fight—whisky, and the refusal of one to acknowledge the other to be a gentleman.
It is a difficult matter to define the term gentleman now-a-days. St. Paul had the true bearing of the word Timothy about him. Confucius left behind him some rules of gentlemanhood. Cæsar burned the private papers of Pompey without examining them, after the battle of Pharsalia. Many others could be mentioned. There was a day and time, when a gentleman possessed of native honor, forbearance, self-possession, generous and refined sentiments and polished manners. They were non-tax, independent of fixed occupation, or of fixed rank. Now, who is not a gentleman? A vacant head or a bunged eye is the reward to any one to refuse the term to any person.

AT this time we know of two or three desirable houses that are closed on account of exorbitant rents asked for them. The same can be said of three or four small dwelling houses. High rent and the extravagant sums demanded for unimproved property, is undoubtedly affecting the progress and prosperity of the city. Only we hear the question asked, where can I buy a cheap house, or where can I rent a low priced one? Well, to be candid, we must answer, that such property cannot be found in the city. Houses suited to men who live on low salaries, mechanics and workmen, are difficult to find.
We are acquainted with men who are soliciting to come to Atlanta; men who would be useful citizens, who would assist to make prosperous the city; yet, who confess that property is so high they cannot locate here. It is absurd to say that the land is not here. Any one can go on the Capitol, or ride over the city, and see the large amount of unimproved property, in fact, the city limits include ground for a population of one hundred thousand people. It is silly to say that building is so expensive. Thousands of feet of lumber are daily brought here. And there are a large number of mechanics, ready for work. The best improvements now being made in money in the city, are in buying lots, erecting cheap houses, and renting them high.
Cheap rents will increase the population of Atlanta. Increase the population, and this will add to the trade of the city.
We are glad to know that a Real Estate Association has been organized here; and are pleased at glancing at its charter and constitution to see one of its commendable features of the organization is for the purpose "of purchasing real estate in the city, and building houses upon the same, with the object of making gain for its stockholders, and cheapening rents." We trust that the association may be a success, and make money for its stockholders, and insure homes for forty or fifty families more, for they are taking a step in the right direction to assist in the city's prosperity.

WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND.—To relieve the aching heart of woman and bring joy where sorrow and despair now reign, is a task of high order which the smiles of kings can confer into utter insignificance. To do this is the peculiar province of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator; which, from the numberless cures it has accomplished, is appropriately styled Woman's best Friend. The distressing complaint known as "whites," and the various irregularities of the womb, to which woman is subject, disappear like magic before a single bottle of this wonderful compound. It is prepared by L. H. Bradfield, Druggist, Atlanta, Ga., and sold at $1.50 per bottle by respectable druggists everywhere. Physicians prescribe it in action is prompt, sure and decisive.

AN INSATIABLE SEASON.—Spring is welcome, but not its diseases. We should be glad to have its bloom without its fogs, its vapors its sudden changes of temperature, and its other agencies for producing colds, billious attacks, and other harrassing disorders which they engender. As this cannot be, it behooves all sensible people to do the best they can to escape such serious drawbacks on their pleasure. The best way to do this is to purify the whole system with cute ought to do when rational influences fill the air. The answer will be, "Hostetter's Bitters" the system. But how? This is the important task question. A dozen medicines in the world could be truthfully recommended as many different medicines. On the other hand, the thousands who have tested the virtues of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an invigorant and alterative, will recommend but one, for we do not know of any safe and restorative in which their own experience has taught them to trust. A course of this rare vegetable stimulant, commenced now, would save many a pang to be feeled and dreaded hereafter. It will be well, therefore, for it would probably preclude the necessity for medical advice. Without disparagement to a profession which all intelligent men and women respect and honor, it is just as well, if possible, to keep out of the doctor's hands, and they would have comparatively few cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia, billiousness, nervousness, and general debility to attend to, if this agreeable and healthful specific were in universal use. mar5-d1w&wlt

IF YOU have a bad taste in your mouth, sallowness or yellow color of skin, feel despondent, stupid and drowsy, appetite unsteady, frequent headache or dizziness, you are "bilious," and nothing will arouse your liver to action and strengthen up your system equal to Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery. Used moderately during exposure as a malarial poison, it enables the liver to work off the poison, and will thus prevent ague and billous fevers. It is just the thing for jaundice. As a blood purifier for the cure of pimples, blotches, eruptions, salt rheum, and other skin diseases, it has no equal. Sold by druggists.

THE wise Creator, knowing that man was prone to disease, placed within his reach in the vegetable kingdom an antidote for every ill that flesh is heir to, only requires time and research to bring these wonderful medicines of nature to light, and with the aid of scientific chemists, are so prepared as to keep them for years; this, long time to time, are brought to the notice of the human family some new discoveries which, while they do not cure all the ills that flesh is heir to, are splendid specifics for certain diseases, among these great discoveries we class the great tonic of the present age, Lippman's Great German Bitters.

The Daily Constitution.

FROM EVERY GRAVEYARD.

The following hymn is being sung in the West and South in the religious meetings of the colored people:

In the judgment day you will hear Jesus say,
Gabriel, go and wake my people,
From every graveyard.
CHORUS.
Rise ye nations, rise ye nations,
Rise ye nations, from every graveyard.

Go Gabriel, blow. "How loud shall I blow?"
Loud as seven peals of thunder,
To every graveyard,
Chorus. Come to judgment, etc.

Tell the Angel in the sun, tell the Angel in the moon,
Pour out vials on the wicked,
In every graveyard,
Chorus. Oh! what mourning, etc.

What will the sinner do that awful judgment day.
To lose his soul and Jesus too,
From every graveyard,
Chorus. Must come to judgment, etc.

How happy are they whose God is the Lord,
They have secured a hiding place
From every graveyard,
Chorus. Safe in Jesus, etc.

Hear the Christian say, Jesus the lamb was slain,
For to redeem his people,
From every graveyard,
Chorus. We'll arise and meet him, etc.

Hear Jesus say, Father, these are they,
Come up through tribulations,
From every graveyard,
Chorus. Oh! what a number, etc.

We shall see him as he is on that eternal day,
Take the wings and fly away,
From every graveyard,
Chorus. And all live forever, etc.

When the saints must go, the silver clouds swing low,
And take up all God's people,
From every graveyard,
Chorus. Ransomed number, etc.

We shall put on the long white robe, and wear the starry crown,
While up and down the golden streets,
From every graveyard,
Chorus. Safe forever, etc.

AKERMAN.

GEORGIA STORY TOWNSEND TELLS HOW AKERMAN DISCOVERED THE GREAT GEORGIAN CATALOG Tribune Letter.]

A Georgia man and a friend of the Attorney General tells me how Akerman came to be discovered. It seems that he went to school at Exeter, N. H., with an attorney now of Buffalo, N. Y., named Carlton Sprague, and, being a determined letter-writer, kept up a private correspondence with Sprague during all the subsequent years. His letters were interrupted during the war, but he only acquired a compressed steam power of chirography in that time, and no sooner was it over than he struck terror into the largest letter-size paper. He discussed the subjects of clemency, beans, Lord Coke, saleratus, and constructive treason, all to the broad tympanum of one meek ear, but much practice had made him a very capable correspondent, and he was never uninteresting.

After Grant's election he went to visit General Hamilton, of the United States Army, at Milwaukee, I believe it was, and there the President elect met Mr. Sprague, who was upon a visit West. Among the themes they touched was the South, and Mr. Sprague, having just received a long screed from Akerman, read it aloud. Replete as it was with the views and earnestness of a determined letter-writer, the letter struct Grant profoundly, and he inquired all about Akerman; for he was sorely puzzled to obtain good office-holders in the South.

Akerman was made District Attorney in his region, and was frequently brought on to Washington by the President's solicitation, and at last he was conveniently inserted, despite the strenuous endeavors of Mr. Hoar, in the high post of Attorney General of the United States.

This is quite a pretty political pastoral, and it is a pity to spoil it by adding that Akerman is a weak brother in that powerful office, that great questions and cases he does not argue at all but retains other counsel for them, and that like the majority of wild roses which adorn the wayside of life, transportation to the capital conservatory makes his punyness and briery unostentation more conspicuous than his gorgeousness of blossom or royalty of dye. Akerman may be a powerful letter-writer, but the lawyers of the Supreme Court, such men as Carpenter, Carlisle, and Stanberry, feel that the great concerns intrusted to that gentleman are in a weak depository, and they know, as does every man familiar with official life, that probably the Attorney Generalship is the best office in power to the Treasury.

It is the government in court everywhere the government on its talent down amongst the lawyers, the government championship with his foot upon the law, and its armory in its head; such ought to be the Attorney General. Such is he not, but instead a lank, thin, round-headed farmer man, with the colossal nonsequitur of a country court-house town worn for life into his honest face. The freshness of a cross road is in the landscape of his look. The historical passion of his life is that some inn keeper at the capital of Georgia, would not give him a bed, because he was a Union man.

This latter indignity makes Akerman conceive some resemblance between his life and Dante's. Still, under the baldish roundness of his great Roman calle from Georgia, the gentle nature of a New England man, long resident in the South, shines like silver in the ore. He owes his success to doing one important duty well and long; answering letters. Young men there is probably a moral in this, but I fear to request you to imitate Mr. Akerman's example, lest your perseverance of chirography might overload the sufficient morning mail.

A Musical Prodigy.

A GEORGIA BLIND BOY IN LOUISVILLE, KY., EIGHTEEN YEARS OLD, SHOWS WONDERFUL MUSICAL GENIUS.

Within the past few weeks the select musical circles of the city have been amazed and delighted with the performance of what is by acclamation denominated a musical prodigy. Rumors of the wonderful performances of this remarkable genius have been current for several days, but except by the select few, were regarded simply as exaggerations. But on Saturday last, an exhibition of the powers of the person referred to, was given in the presence of a number of well known composers and teachers of the city, at the store of W. S. Hays, on Fourth street.

The prodigy is a youth eighteen years of age, named John T. Camp, who is a native of Troup county, Georgia. He was stricken with blindness at the age of four months, and when some five or six years old was placed in the Blind Institute at Macon. Before the breaking out of the war his family were in good circumstances, and he had all the advantages the institution afforded. Among the studies of the institution is music, and young Camp, with other pupils, was required to take his daily lesson in this art. He manifested a surprising talent, and soon surpassed his fellow-students. The war with its attendant vicissitudes, compelled him to leave the institute, and with a widowed mother he "refugeed" to this State. They came to this county and settled in the Pond Settlement, a few miles south of the city. His musical talents attracted the attention of Ambrose Camp, our jailor, who brought him to this city.

His performances upon one of Chambers' grand pianos, at the store of Mr. Hays, on Saturday, elicited the fullest praise from all who had the pleasure of hearing him. He played the most difficult pieces with a precision, accuracy and delicacy of touch that astonished every one. Although totally blind, there was no hesitation—every note was given with the confidence of a master. He seemed intuitively to touch the right key at the right instant. He was equally at home with the organ, and with the violin, the most perfect of musical instruments. He evinced a power that, with proper training and practice, will certainly lead to fame.

Not only in music is his manifold power displayed. History, both ancient and modern, literature, and the current topics of the day, are at his fingers' ends, and a rapid cross-questioning upon a variety of subjects failed to discomfit him. So well pleased were the professors who heard him, they have determined to give him a complimentary concert at an early day, and the finest musical talent of the city has volunteered to assist. His condition verges upon extreme poverty, and even were it not for his wonderful talents, it would be a laudable charity to assist him. Due notice of the concert will be given.—Louisville Ledger.

☞ The 84,000 men under General Bourbaki, who have taken refuge in Switzerland, swell the number of French prisoners and of fugitives in the neighboring States to more than a million; 920,000, according to the North German Gazette, are prisoners of war inclusive, of course, the garrison of Paris; nearly 20,000 died into Belgium after the battle of Metz and Sedan, and more than 80,000 have now crossed the Swiss frontier. This enormous total of 1,034,000, remarks the Gazette, is unparalleled in history.

☞ They have discovered in some remote corner of Massachusetts, a lineal descendant of Henry Dunster, the first President of Harvard College. The friends of Harvard propose the grandiloquent education at that institution of the little son of Mr. Dunster, who is also named Henry, as an appreciative testimonial of the services of his ancestor.

☞ Marshal Bazaine's wife is a rich and beautiful Mexican woman, whom he married during Maximilian's time. She has just born him a son at Cassel. The child was literally baptized on French soil, as the Marshal had enough earth brought expressly from France to cover the floor of the room in which the baptism took place.

Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL,

Manufacturer and Vendor of the Celebrated

Smith's Tonic Syrup,

FOR THE CURE OF

Ague and Fever,

—OR—

Chills and Fever.

THE Proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the safe, certain, speedy and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southwestern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion, that in no case whatever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

Bull's Worm Destroyer.

To my United States and World-wide Readers.

I have received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as my Almanacs and various publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following letter, from a highly educated and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. Dr. Clement knows exactly what he speaks of, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of Bull's Worm Destroyer:

VALLASOW, Walker County, Ga., June 29, 1869.

DR. JOHN BULL:

DEAR SIR—I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderfully efficacious. It has never failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary, they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine direct from you. If I can get it on easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line M. D.'s; but I see no just cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know to be effective, simply because we may be ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate suffering humanity when I may be called to command—not hesitating because some one more ingenious than myself may have learned its effects first, and secured the sole right to secure that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the country, that purport to be a panacea for all disease to which human flesh is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms. I am, sir, most respectfully,

JULIUS P. CLEMENT, M. D.

BULL'S SARSAPARILLA.

A GOOD REASON FOR THE CAPTAIN'S FAITH.

READ THE CAPTAIN'S LETTER AND THE LETTER FROM HIS MOTHER.

BENTON BARRACKS, Mo., April 20, 1866.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficiency of your sarsaparilla, and all healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded two years ago—was taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed up. I have used up a moment since I was wounded. I am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in anything else. I wish that that is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles and oblige, Capt. C. P. JOHNSON,

St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written by my mother, Mrs. Jessie Johnson, mother of Captain Johnson. Dr. Bull—Dear Sir: My husband, [illegible] son, was a skillful surgeon and physician [illegible] Johnson, New York, where he died, leaving [illegible] in Central Ohio above C. P. [illegible] a chronic diarrhœa and [illegible] years of age he had your Sarsaparilla [illegible] which I gave him [illegible] recommended [illegible] it to many in New York, Ohio and Perfect success [illegible] cases of scrofula and fever sores were almost [illegible] I am very anxious for my son to again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla. He is fearful of getting a spurious article, hence his writing to you for it. His wounds were terrible and I believe he will recover.
